

Global Law

1. General Overview

The Department of Global Law was established in 2011 as there is a growing need for global-minded legal experts in international disputes. The graduates are expected to play a significant role in helping to resolve those disputes, contributing to the betterment of the world. You may want to invest in our department and be part of the future we are designing.

2. Educational Goals/Objectives

The Department has designed integrated curricula that strike a balance between theory and practice of Global Law and secured top-class faculty to produce practical experts in Global Law for corporations and civil services. For this purpose, we have introduced a joint program with Law School of Washington University, St. Louis. Those who want to acquire a membership of the American Bar Association can go on to LL.M course after graduation from our department. Currently we are preparing for additional joint programs with Law School of Michigan State University, Law School of Golden Gate University, and Law School of Boston University.

3. Career Opportunities/Job Situation

- member of the American Bar Association
- international trader
- legal team member in domestic and international corporations
- staff member in international organizations

4. Related Licenses

Attorney's License by the American Bar Association